SWEET SOUND OF SOCKCESS

Musician/vocalist Matt Dusk has plenty to croon about but if he invites you to a barbecue try not to overdress Judith Klassen

▶ This month Jude sits down with irreverent crooner Matt Dusk at his swinging Toronto pad – replete with orange shag carpet, baby! Dusk has studied with Bob Fenton and Oscar Peterson, and has had two No. 1 hit singles (“All About Me” and “Back in Town”). He recorded the super-cool soundtrack to the critically acclaimed HBO Canada comedy Call Me Fitz, which returns for its second season on Sept. 25, and last year shot a live DVD concert special for PBS with a 17-piece big band at the Rio All Suite Hotel and Casino in Las Vegas. Read on to discover the most inappropriate thing he’s ever worn – hint, it often goes missing in the dryer.

1. If you could be any character from a short story or a novel, who would you be?

At a very young age I fell in love with a character of Ian Fleming’s: James Bond. He’s got all the cool gadgets, all the cool girls. Every time I order a martini I say, “Shaken, not stirred.” Is that cheesy?

2. What’s your favourite city in the world?

Toronto. I grew up in Toronto and then moved to Las Vegas. Anything you want can happen in Vegas ... but yeah, Toronto is my favourite city.

3. If you could only eat one thing for the rest of your life what would it be?
Scotch.

4. What’s the most interesting thing in your fridge right now?

Polish milk. My girlfriend is from Poland, so we have many Polish products in the fridge.

5. If you were trapped on a grounded airplane, what three essential products would you want to have with you?

Scotch, Polish milk and your lattes ... (see Jude’s special latte recipe).

6. What’s the most inappropriate thing you’ve ever said or worn?

It’s a little embarrassing but ... I love to entertain in my home, and one time I was having a barbecue and a friend and I thought it would be a really funny idea to just wear a sock.

7. Which David do you most identify with: Sedaris, Foley, Frum, Lynch, or Suzuki?

Um ... Hasselhoff?

8. Who would you most like to be trapped in an elevator with?

David Hasselhoff! No, seriously, I don't want to be trapped in an elevator.

9. What's your favourite TV show?

Call Me Fitz! Here's this guy who's totally out of touch with reality, who thinks he was born in the wrong era, and thinks he's Frank Sinatra. I mean, it's not too far from my life. But favourite TV show of all time? The Polka Dot Door.

10. If you could stay looking the way you do for the rest of your life but only if you adopted a bland food diet, would you do it?

No way! Men are very fortunate – we age gracefully. Look at Sean Connery, Pierce Brosnan and ... Marlon Brando. (Laughs) ■

Judith Klassen is a Toronto writer, producer, performer and host of the celebrity interview/comedy show Judecast.
